❖ Introduction

The National Service Scheme (NSS) was evolved and introduced by the Government of India in the year 1969. It aims at developing among students a sense of participation in nation building through Social Work. This deepens understanding of the social environment and enriches his/her personality through actual participation in day-to-day life of the society. This process of learning is not only a desirable supplement to the classroom education but develops in the student a sense of responsibility, tolerance and co-operation. The NSS plays a vital role in the development of the latent aspects of the student's personality. Since the 1969, the NSS unit has been functioning with full vigour and enthusiasm.

❖ Aim of NSS

The aim of the NSS is Education through community service.

❖ Objective of NSS

The main objectives of National Service Scheme (NSS) are:

- Understand the community in which student work.
- Understand themselves in relation to their community.
- Identify the needs and problems of the community and involve them in problem-solving.
- Develop among them a sense of social and civic responsibility.
- Utilize their knowledge in finding practical solutions to individual and community problems.
- Develop competence required for group-living and sharing of responsibilities.
- Gain skills in mobilizing community participation.
- Acquire leadership qualities and democratic attitudes.
- Develop capacity to meet emergencies and natural disasters.
- Practice national integration and social harmony.

❖ Motto of NSS

- ❖ The Motto of NSS "Not Me But You", reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for self-less service.
- ❖ NSS helps the students develop appreciation to other person's point of view and also show consideration to 'other living beings.
- ❖ The philosophy of the NSS is well doctrine in this motto, which underlines/on the belief that the welfare of an individual is ultimately dependent on the welfare of the society on the whole and therefore, the NSS volunteers shall strive for the well-being of the society.
