

Shri Sharda Bhavan Education Society's
Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded
NEWSLETTER
Department of Commerce
2025-2026

Inspiration
Dr.G.N.Shinde
Pro-Vice Chancellor of SRTMUN &
Principal of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded
Editor
Dr.H.S.Patange
Vice Principal & Prof. &
Head Department of Commerce

Inauguration program

The program was presided over by the Principal of the College and former Pro-Vice Chancellor of Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Dr. Ganeshchandra Shinde Sir. The inauguration was conducted at the hands of Hon. Narendra Chavan Sir, Senate and Management Council Member of Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University and Chairman of Bhaurao Chavan Sugar Factory Nanded. The chief guest for the event was Dr. Raosaheb Shendarkar Sir, Joint Secretary of ShriShardaBhavan Education Society, The Vice-Principal, Head of Commerce Department and Member of Academic Council, Dr. Harishchandra Patange Sir, was also present on this occasion.

Inaugural Address:

In his inaugural address, Hon. Narendra Chavan sir motivated the students by emphasizing the Leadership qualities, discipline, and foresight of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. Drawing from his own experience in the turmeric industry and business sector, he inspired students to think innovatively in entrepreneurship and commerce. He further highlighted the growing importance of Artificial Intelligence (AI) not only in commerce and agriculture but also in defense and military applications. Stressing that adopting AI-driven tools and completing online courses is the need of the hour for the younger generation.

Chief Guest Dr. R. K. Shendarkar Sir appreciated the students enthusiasm and extended his best wishes for their bright future. In his introductory remarks, Dr. Harishchandra Patange Sir highlighted chat, considering the overwhelming response of commerce and management students, the Department has established four distinct student associations instead of one. These include:

1. Commerce Student Association
2. Management Student Association
3. Banking Student Association
4. Tax Student Association

He also informed that the office bearers of these associations were selected through an elocution competition on the theme "Changing Scenario of Trade and Business."

On this occasion, all the newly elected student office bearers of various associations, along with their respective mentor teachers, were felicitated. The list of the office bearers is as follows:

Commerce Association (In-charge Teacher: Dr. R.L. Sontakke)

- Ashwini Nilewad (B.Com. SY B) President
Durga Waghmare (B.Com. SY C) Vice-President
Janhavi Pawar (B.Com. FY C) Secretary
Prachi Oza (B.Com. FY B) Joint-Secretary
Bhagyashri Sadegaonkar (B.Com. SY C) Treasurer

2) Management Association (In - Charge Ms.Priyanka p Shishodiya)

Shivkanya Deshmukh (M.Com.FY) - President

Durga Pawde (B.Com. SY) -

Vice president

Akanksha Pawar (B.Com. FY) - Secretary

Shivani Patil (B.Com FY) - joint secretary

Shivani Warpade (B.Com FY) Treasurer

3) Banking Association Mrs.Sonali Wakode (In - Charge)

Shital Jadhav (B.Com. SY C) President.

Deepail Markunde (M.Com. FY B)- Vice-President

Tanushree Kagne (B.Com. FY B)- Secretary

Durgesh Thakur (B.Com. FY B)-Joint-Secretary

Vedika Karle (B.Com. FY C) - Treasurer

4) Tax Association Ms.Bharti.P.Suvarnkar

(In - Charge)

Kirpatsingh Tawana (B.Com. SY C) - President

Pratiksha Pawar (B.Com. SY C)-Vice-President

Valshnavi Indurkar (B.Com. FY C)-Secretary

Navyjotkaur Galilwale (B.Com. SY C)-Joint-Secretary

Mayuri Bokare (B.Com. FY C)-Treasurer

Student representatives Ashwini Nilewad and Navyjotkaur Galilwale shared their experiences, and outstanding students were felicitated for their active role in organizational activities. Additionally, presentations explaining the objectives of each association were delivered.

The program was compered by Kirpatsingh Tawana (B.Com II Year) and Akanksha Pawar (B.Com I Year), while the vote of thanks was proposed by Durga Waghmare (B.Com II Year).

This Year the star performer was also held and was won by the Kirpatsingh Hazurasingh Tawana B.Com. S.y.

This title is presented to whom who/ever have performed extraordinary and outshine in departmental activities as well as college level activities .

The program concluded with a formal vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the dignitaries, faculty members, and students for their wholehearted participation. The presence and inspiring words of Hon NarendraChavan added immense value to the event, motivating students to think innovatively and adopt modern approaches in education, business, and agriculture.

The felicitation of newly elected office bearers instilled confidence and a sense of responsibility among them to work actively for their respective associations throughout the academic year. Students expressed their enthusiasm to organize various academic, co-curricular, and skill-development activities under these associations,

The entire event was successfully conducted under the able guidance of Dr. H.S. Patange, Vice Principal, Professor & Head, Department of Commerce, along with the cooperation of the faculty and students. The inauguration not only marked the beginning of association activities for the year 2025-26 but also set a vision for nurturing leadership, creativity, and professional growth among commerce students.

Elocution Competition

Commerce Association

Incharge- Dr.RajRatan.R.Sontakke

Ashwini Nilewad (B.Com. SY B) President

Durga Waghmare (B.Com. SY C) Vice-President

Janhavi Pawar (B.Com. FY C) Secretary

Prachi Oza (B.Com. FY B) Joint-Secretary

Bhagyashri Sadegaonkar (B.Com. SY C)-Treasurer

Introduction:

The Commerce Association of the Department of Commerce & Management, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded, successfully organized an Elocution Competition on 23rd August 2025 at 11:30 am in Smart Classroom III (Hall No. 5). The competition was conducted on the topic "Success Story of a Famous Entrepreneur." The event aimed to inspire students by highlighting the journeys of successful entrepreneurs and encouraging them to develop a positive and growth-oriented mindset.

Students from B.Com. FY, SY, and TY actively participated in the competition. A total of 32 students took part in the event, reflecting great enthusiasm and active involvement from all classes. The participants were well-prepared and presented inspiring success stories of renowned entrepreneurs, emphasizing their vision, hard work, innovation, and determination. Many students also related these success stories to current business scenarios, making their presentations more relevant and impactful.

The participants demonstrated excellent communication skills, stage confidence, and clarity of thought. Their ability to present ideas in a structured and engaging manner made the competition highly informative as well as interesting. The event also helped students overcome stage fear and improve their public speaking abilities.

The competition was organized with the following objectives:

To develop communication and public speaking skills among students.

To build confidence and enhance stage presence.

To promote overall personality development.

To increase awareness about successful entrepreneurs and their contributions to the ecoooty.

To encourage analytical thinking and the ability to express ideas effectively.

To fulfill these objectives, the Commerce Association continuously organizes such academic and co-curricular activities, providing students with a platform to explore their talents and enhance their practical knowledge beyond the classroom. Such events play a vital role in bridging the gap between theoretical learning and real-world applications.

Activities during the Competition:

The event was conducted under the valuable guidance of Dr. H. S. Patange, Head of the Department of Commerce, whose constant support and encouragement made the event successful. Dr. R. L. Sontakke, In-charge of the Commerce Association, and Miss Ashwini Nilewad, President of the Commerce Association, graced the occasion with their presence.

The program was smoothly and confidently anchored by Miss Prachi Oza Joint Secretary of the Commerce Association, who maintained the flow of the event in a professional manner. The evaluation of the competition was carried out by a panel of experienced faculty members: Dr. A. U. Jadhav, Ms. P. P. Shishodiya and Mr. V. S. Rathod. Their fair and unbiased judgment ensured transparency and credibility in the results.

The judges evaluated participants on various parameters such as subject knowledge, confidence level, clarity of speech, content organization, and overall presentation skills. Their valuable observations and feedback also helped students understand their strengths and areas for improvement.

All 21 participants performed remarkably well, making the competition engaging, competitive, and intellectually stimulating. The audience remained attentive throughout the program and actively encouraged the participants with applause and appreciation. The event created a vibrant academic atmosphere and fostered a spirit of healthy competition among students.

Conclusion:

At the conclusion of the competition, Dr. H. S. Patange Sir addressed the students and shared his valuable insights. He emphasized the importance of communication skills, continuous learning, and self-confidence in achieving success in the field of commerce and management. His motivating words inspired students to actively participate in such activities in the future.

The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Neeraj Vishwakarma, Treasurer of the Commerce Association, who expressed gratitude to the management, faculty members, judges, organizers, and participants for their valuable contributions.

The Elocution Competition proved to be a great success and a meaningful learning experience for all. It not only enhanced students' knowledge but also boosted their confidence and presentation skills. All rank holders will be awarded certificates to recognize their efforts and motivate them for future achievements. The event left a lasting impression on the participants and encouraged them to strive for excellence in both academic and co-curricular activities.

Management Association

Elocution

Date: 30th August 2025

Time: 11:30 AM

Venue: Smart Classroom, Hall No. 5

Organized by: Management Association, Department of Commerce

Topic: "The Secret behind a Successful Business's Marketing Strategy"

The Management Association of the Department of Commerce, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded, organized an Elocution Competition on 30th August 2025 at 11:30 AM in Hall No. 5. The event was graced by Dr. H. S. Patange, Head of the Department of Commerce, who interacted with the students and appreciated the initiative. The In-charge teacher, Ms. Priyanka Shisodiya, felicitated Dr. Patange on the occasion. His continuous guidance and support have been a constant source of inspiration for the students. Ms. Tahora Fateema, a freelancer and young woman entrepreneur, was invited to the competition as a special guest

The students were enthusiastic and eager to receive her valuable feedback, as she interacted with each participant and provided personalized reviews. Mr. Mosin Sir also attended the competition voluntarily, and showed keen interest in listening to the students. He serves as the Coordinator of the Infosys Uthrali Foundation, where he actively guides students in shaping their careers and assists them in accessing employment opportunities. The competition provided an excellent platform for students to express their ideas, enhance their public speaking abilities, and critically reflect on a socially relevant theme: management in the era of social media. Time

The competition revolved around the theme "The secret behind a Successful Business's Marketing Strategy" a topic of great relevance in today's digitally dominated environment. It aimed to make students reflect on how they use their time online and to promote awareness about digital discipline. A total of 14 students from various classes, including B.Com. and M.Com., participated with great enthusiasm. Several students also registered on the spot, reflecting the popularity and open spirit of the competition.

The event was adjudicated by a panel of three esteemed judges: Dr. R. L. Sontakke, Mrs. S. S. Wakode, and Mr. Vithal Rathod, who evaluated the participants based on their content, delivery, clarity, confidence, and overall impact. The judges appreciated the depth of thoughts, presentation styles, and the ability of students to engage the audience.

The results of the competition were as follows:

First Prize was awarded to Vaishnavi Thakur from M.Com. 5Y

Second Prize was secured by Shrutl Panchal from B.Com. -TY (C)

Third Prize was won by Prema Dahale from M.Com. -5Y

Banking Association

The office bearers of the Tax Association are as follows:

President: Mr Kirpal Singh Tawana

Vice-President: Ms. Pratiksha Pawar

Secretary: Ms. Vaishnavi Indurkar

Joint Secretary: Ms. Navyot Kaur Galtwale

Treasurer: Ms. Mayuri Bokare

Elocution Competition

The Department of Commerce and Management has established various student associations with the objective of enhancing essential skills such as communication, presentation, and stage confidence, along with the overall personality development of students. These associations regularly organize student-centric and development-oriented activities to provide practical exposure beyond classroom learning. As a part of these initiatives, the Tax Association organized an Elocution Competition.

Objectives

To develop and strengthen public speaking skills among students

To enhance the overall personality and confidence of participants

To create awareness about the importance of taxation in society

To encourage discussion on concepts such as tax planning, tax evasion, tax avoidance, and ethical aspects of taxation

Programme Details

The Tax Association organized an Elocution Competition titled "Importance of Taxes in India's Growth" 16th September 2025 at 11:30 am, in the Smart Classroom (Hall No. 5). The competition witnessed active participation from students of Com and M.Com. reflecting their enthusiasm and interest in the subject.

The program chaired by Prof. Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, Head of the Department of Commerce and Management. The event graced by faculty members including Dr. R. L. Sonakke Sir, Dr. A. U. Jadhav Sir, and M. H. P. Suvankar, in-charge of the Tax Association. The presence of Kirpal Singh Towanavice-president of the Tax Association, along with all office bearers, added significance to the event.

The competition was effectively anchored by Ms. Mayuri Bokare (Treasurer), while the vote of thanks delivered by Vaishnavi Indurkar. A panel of three judges was appointed to evaluate the participants, comprising Dr. A. U. Jadhav Dr. R. L. Sonakke and Mr. Vitthal Rathod

Proceedings of the Programme

At the beginning of the event, Prof. Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, in his introductory address, provided an overview of the department's initiatives and highlighted its tradition of academic excellence. He also explained the purpose behind the formation of student associations and their role in developing leadership qualities and practical skills among students.

He encouraged students to actively participate in such competitions, emphasizing that these platforms play a vital role in building confidence, improving communication skills, and fostering overall development. His motivating words inspired students to make the best use of such opportunities and strive for continuous improvement.

Competition Highlights

The competition showcased remarkable talent, with participants presenting their ideas in a structured, confident, and impactful manner. All participants demonstrated a good understanding of the topic and expressed their views effectively.

Finally, after the evaluation of the participants by the jury panel nominated for the event, result was declared as follows

1. Tanushree Kagne

Prachi oza B.Com F.Y

2. Ari Tidke B.Com S.Y

3. Sanjana patil B.com F.Y

Guest Lecturer

Commerce Association

The Department of Commerce & Management, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded, organized a Guest Lecture "Entrepreneurship: Opportunities & Perspective" with the objective of creating awareness among students about entrepreneurial opportunities and developing an understanding of modern business perspectives. The lecture conducted by the Commerce Association as a continuous student development initiatives throughout the academic year.

The session aimed to motivate students towards entrepreneurship as a career option and to enhance their knowledge regarding various aspects of starting and managing a business. It also focused on developing innovative thinking and encouraging students to become job creators rather than job seekers

Objectives of the Lecture:

To introduce students to the fundamentals of entrepreneurship.

To create awareness about emerging business opportunities.

To motivate students to adopt entrepreneurial skills and mindset.

To provide guidance regarding career opportunities in the business world.

To develop practical and analytical skills among students.

Organization of the Guest Lecture

This guest lecture was one of the significant activities organized by the Commerce Association during the academic year 2025-26. For this purpose, Dr. Dilip S. Chavan Sir, an experienced academician and expert in the field of entrepreneurship, was invited as the guest speaker. His vast knowledge and practical insights made the session highly valuable and engaging for students.

Activities During the Lecture:

The guest lecture was conducted on 11th August 2025 at 11:30 am in Smart Classroom III (Hall No. 5). Students from B.Com and M.Com classes attended the session with great enthusiasm and interest.

The program was organized under the guidance of Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, Head of the Department of Commerce & Management. Dr. R. L. Sonakke Sir, In-charge Teacher of the Commerce Association, along with the office bearers of the association, took sincere efforts for the successful organization of the event. At the beginning of the session, Dr. H. S. Patange Sir felicitated the guest speaker and introduced him to the students. He emphasized the importance of entrepreneurship in today's dynamic economic environment and encouraged students to take advantage of such learning opportunities.

During the lecture, Dr. Dilip S. Chavan Sir provided deep insights into the concept of entrepreneurship, various business opportunities, and the challenges faced by entrepreneurs. He shared practical examples and real-life experiences, which helped students understand the subject more effectively. He also guided students on how to develop innovative ideas, manage risks, and build a successful venture. The lecture was highly interactive, and students actively participated by asking questions and sharing their views. The enthusiasm and curiosity of the students remained consistent throughout the session, making the lecture lively and impactful.

Conclusion:

The guest lecture proved to be highly informative and inspiring for all the participants. It enhanced students' understanding of entrepreneurship and encouraged them to think creatively about their future careers. More than 90 students attended the session and benefited from the expert guidance. The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. R. L. Sonakke Sir, In-charge Teacher of the Commerce Association. He expressed gratitude to the Principal, Dr. G. N. Shinde Sir, and Head of the Department, Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, for their support and permission to organize the event. He also extended heartfelt thanks to Dr. Dilip S. Chavan Sir for sharing his valuable time and knowledge with the students. Overall, the lecture was a grand success and left a lasting impact on the students, motivating them to explore entrepreneurship as a promising career path. Such initiatives will continue to play a vital role in shaping the professional skills and mindset of students.

Guest Lecture Management Association

Guest Lecture - "Financial literacy Program"

Date: 30 August, 2025

Organized by: Management Association, Department of Commerce

Chairperson: Dr. H. S. Patange, Vice Principal & Head, Department of Commerce

Resource Person: Mr. Dhananjay Shivraj Channale, Head and Assistant Professor, Guru Nanak College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mumbai Financial Education Program

In Collaboration with: In collaboration with National Institute of Securities Market (NISIM) & SEBI

Convener: Dr. Ganeshchandra Shinde, Principal, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded

On 30 August, 2025, the Management Association of the Department of Commerce, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded, organized a guest lecture on the topic "Financial Literacy Program". The session was designed specifically for final-year B.Com. students with the aim of guiding them toward making informed career decisions post-graduation. This event was conducted in academic collaboration with Guru Nanak College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mumbai Financial Education Program and the National Institute of Securities Market (NISIM) & SEBI.

The event was conducted under the overall guidance and vision of Dr. Ganeshchandra Shinde, Principal of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded, and was chaired by Dr. H. S. Patange, Vice Principal and Head of the Department of Commerce.

The keynote address was delivered by Mr. Dhananjay Shivraj Channale, Head and Assistant Professor at Guru Nanak College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mumbai, and a Financial Education Programmer. With his extensive experience in guiding students and professionals, Mr. Channale conducted a dynamic and interactive session covering key areas such as profile building, placement support, preparation for competitive and entrance examinations, and selection of appropriate career pathways. He emphasized the importance of aligning individual strengths and interests with current industry requirements, supported by real-life examples, motivational insights, and practical decision-making approaches. He also encouraged students to explore diverse career opportunities after graduation, including higher education, government services, entrepreneurship, and freelancing.

The event was smoothly coordinated by Ms. Priyanka Shisodia, Assistant Professor and in-charge of the Management Association. Her meticulous planning and coordination ensured the smooth execution of the program. The session proved to be highly beneficial, offering clarity, direction, and confidence to the students in planning their futures. Students appreciated the session for being practical, relevant, and deeply motivating.

In conclusion, the guest lecture "Financial Literacy Program" proved to be a highly successful initiative by the Management Association of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya. The session effectively achieved its primary objective of enhancing students' understanding of financial concepts and creating awareness about the importance of financial planning and management. Through the expert guidance of Mr. Dhananjay Shivraj Channale, students gained valuable knowledge about managing personal finances, making informed financial decisions, and planning for a secure future, thereby empowering them to handle their financial responsibilities with confidence.

Debate Competition Tax Association

Introduction

The Department of Commerce and Management Sciences of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded, organized by Tax Association, organized a Debate Competition as part of its continuous efforts to enhance students' intellectual and analytical abilities. The activity was designed to provide a platform for students to express their views on contemporary economic issues and to develop critical thinking, communication, and argumentative skills.

Student associations play a vital role in bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical exposure. This debate competition served as an effective medium to encourage students to participate actively in academic discussions and to build confidence in presenting their ideas before an audience.

Objectives

The debate competition was organized with the following objectives

To develop critical thinking and analytical abilities among students to enhance public speaking and communication skills

To create awareness about Goods and Services Tax (GST) and its impact on the economy

To encourage students to present logical arguments supported by facts and data

To promote healthy academic discussion and exchange of ideas

To build confidence and stage courage among students

Programme Details

The Tax Association successfully organized a Debate Competition on the topic "Old GST Rates vs New GST Rates-Which Serves the Economy Better?"

The competition was held on 17th January 2025 at 11:30 am, in the Digital Classroom. Students from the Department of Commerce and Management actively participated in the event, showcasing their knowledge and enthusiasm.

The program was conducted under the guidance of Prof. Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, Head of the Department, along with the support of faculty members and the in-charge teacher of the Tax Association, Ms. B. P. Suvankar. The presence of faculty members and student office bearers contributed to the smooth execution of the program.

Proceedings of the Programme

The program began with an introductory address by Prof. Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, who provided an overview of the significance of such academic activities. He highlighted the role of student associations in nurturing leadership qualities, communication skills, and overall personality development.

He also emphasized the importance of GST in India's taxation system and encouraged students to actively participate in discussions on such relevant economic topics. His motivating words inspired the participants to present their arguments confidently and effectively.

Following the introduction, the debate competition commenced with participants presenting their views in favor of both old GST rates and new GST rates. The debate was conducted in a disciplined and structured manner, allowing each participant to express their viewpoints clearly.

Participants supporting the old GST rates emphasized stability, higher revenue generation, and better control over luxury consumption. On the other hand, those supporting the GST rates highlighted reduced tax burden, increased consumption, support to small businesses, and overall economic growth.

The discussion covered key aspects such as GDP growth, inflation, consumer impact, and government revenue, making the debate informative and insightful.

Competition Highlights

The debate competition witnessed enthusiastic participation, with students presenting well-researched arguments supported by economic facts and current policies. The participants demonstrated excellent communication skills, confidence, and clarity in their presentations.

After careful evaluation by the judges, the results were declared as follows

Winners

1st Pratiksha Jangne

2nd Aroz Fatema B.com sy

3rd Ashwini Nilewad B.com sy

Consolation Prize

Bhagyashri Salegaonkar B.Com SY

The performances of all participants reflected their deep understanding of the topic and their ability to present balanced and logical arguments. The competition not only highlighted students' talents but also encouraged them to think critically about important economic issues.

Conclusion

The Debate Competition organized by the Tax Association was a great success. It provided a valuable platform for students to enhance their communication skills, broaden their knowledge, and develop a deeper understanding of GST and its impact on the Indian economy.

Such activities play a crucial role in shaping students into confident, knowledgeable, and responsible individuals. The event concluded on a positive note, leaving students motivated to participate in future academic and co-curricular activities.

Ym zep

Commerce

Date: 28th January, 2026

Venue: Hall No. 5

Organized by: Commerce Association

Introduction

The academic event YMZEP (YMN-ZEP) is organized annually by the students for the students under the Department of Commerce and Management. This initiative consists of various academic and co-curricular activities designed to enhance students' intellectual capabilities, creativity, and confidence. It provides a dynamic platform where students can showcase their talents, exchange ideas, and develop a practical understanding of real-world business scenarios.

Objectives

The programme was conducted with the following objectives:

1. To develop entrepreneurial awareness and mindset among students.
2. To enhance knowledge about the startup ecosystem in India.
3. To improve communication, presentation, and analytical skills
4. To encourage innovative thinking and problem-solving abilities.
5. To promote confidence, leadership qualities, and teamwork among students.
6. To create awareness about emerging business opportunities and challenges.

About Commerce Association

The activities of the Department of Commerce are spearheaded by the YMZEP Committee every year.

The associations have each and every student of the department as its active member. The association is led by a body consisting of Committee President, Vice-President, Secretary, Joint Secretary and Treasurer under the guidance of the Head of the Department, Chairman YMZEP and other teachers of the department. YMZEP Committee and 4 Students Association play an important role in making the department a front runner, in and out of the college. The office bearers are nominated for the smooth functioning of various activities held under the annual fest YMZEP under the chairmanship of Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, Head & Vice Principal, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya.

The Commerce Association is an integral and active body of the Department of Commerce and Management. Every student of the department is a member of this association, which is managed by a structured committee consisting of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Joint Secretary, and Treasurer under the guidance of faculty members.

The association regularly organizes academic competitions, seminars, workshops, guest lectures, and industrial interactions under the YMZEP initiative. These activities help students to enhance their academic knowledge, develop soft skills, and prepare for future career opportunities in commerce, management, and entrepreneurship.

Event Description

The Commerce Association successfully organized a Students' Presentation Competition on 28th January 2026 at 12:30 PM in Hall No. 5.

The theme of the competition, "Startups in India: Challenges and Opportunities", was highly relevant in today's economic context, where startups are playing a significant role in driving innovation and economic growth. The competition aimed to provide students with a platform to express their ideas, share insights, and analyze the opportunities and challenges associated with startups in India.

A total of 19 students actively participated in the competition under the guidance of Dr. R. L. Sontakke (In-charge Teacher). The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across all years, reflecting their keen interest in entrepreneurship and emerging business trends.

Inaugural Session

The programme commenced with an inspiring address by Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, Head of the Department of Commerce and Management. In his speech, he emphasized the growing importance of startups in India's economic development and highlighted their contribution to innovation, job creation, and global competitiveness.

He encouraged students to think creatively, take calculated risks, and explore entrepreneurial opportunities. He also stressed the importance of acquiring practical knowledge, digital skills, and adaptability in the rapidly changing business environment.

Presentation Highlights

During the competition, participants presented on various dimensions of the startup ecosystem in India, including:

Concept and evolution of startups in India

Growth trends and contribution to the Indian economy

Government initiatives such as Startup India and Make in India.

Opportunities sectors like fintech, edtech, e-commerce, and green energy

Challenges faced by startups such as funding constraints, market competition, regulatory issues, and sustainability

Role of innovation, technology, and digital transformation

Case studies of successful Indian startups and entrepreneurs

Future scope and global potential of Indian startups

Each participant delivered a 5-minute presentation, followed by a brief and interactive question-answer session. The presentations demonstrated strong research skills, innovative ideas, and a clear understanding of contemporary business issues. Students also exhibited confidence, clarity of thought, and effective communication skills.

Event Highlights

More than 50 students attended the event, creating an engaging and interactive learning environment.

The competition encouraged knowledge-sharing and healthy academic competition among students.

Participants showcased creativity, critical thinking, and entrepreneurial vision.

The event significantly contributed to enhancing students' awareness about startups and entrepreneurship.

Prize Distribution.

The Prize Distribution Ceremony of YMN-ZEP was conducted successfully with great enthusiasm and active participation from students. The program was graced by the esteemed Chief Guest, Dr. Sachin Pawar Sir, whose inspiring presence motivated the students. Prof. Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, Head of the Department of Commerce, also presided over the function and guided the participants with his valuable insights.

The program was effectively anchored by student Kirpal Singh Tawana (B.Com S.Y.) and Ashwini Nilewad (B.Com S.Y.), who conducted the event in a confident and engaging manner. During the ceremony, winners of various events were felicitated for their excellent performance and talent. The dignitaries appreciated the efforts of both the students and organizers, emphasizing the importance of such activities in enhancing skills, building confidence, and contributing to overall personality development. The event concluded on a positive note, encouraging students to actively participate in future academic and co-curricular initiatives.

Conclusion

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing sincere gratitude to the Principal, Head of the Department, In-charge Teacher Dr. R. L. Sontakke, faculty members, organizers, and participants for their valuable contribution in making the event successful.

The competition proved to be highly beneficial in enhancing students' understanding of the startup ecosystem in India. It also helped in developing essential skills such as research ability, critical thinking communication, and confidence.

Overall, the event was a great success and effectively fulfilled the objectives of the Commerce Association and the YMZEP initiative, contributing to the academic and professional growth of students.

Winners of Students' Presentation Competition YMZEP

1st Ayesha Zuha B.Com Ty

2nd Kirpalsingh Tawana B.com Sy

3rd Jyoti channawar B.com Ty

Constitution prize

Neha kokre

Durgesh Thakur

Management Association

: Management Association, Department of Commerce

Event: Student Presentation Competition

Topic: "Digital Marketing Strategies of any Successful Indian Brand"

Date: 29th January, 2026

Time: 12:30 PM

Venue: Hall No.5.

The Academic Event YM-ZEP is organized by the students for the students every year. This programme includes Students Presentation Competition event that not only educate the students but also makes them confident and skilled. It allows the students to exhibit their talent and explore new possibilities. It is aimed at the development of the students in which they get an opportunity to bring out their talents in curricular and co-curricular activities.

The activities/events under YM-ZEP are spearheaded by the Students Associations of every year. The associations have student of the department as its active member. The association is led by a body consisting of Association President, Vice-President and Secretary, Treasurer, members under the guidance of the Head of the Department, Association's In-charge Teacher (Mentor) and other teachers of the department. These associations play an important role in making the department a front runner, in and out of the college.

The following events for students were organized by the Management Association during the academic year 2025-26.

For the Academic year 2025-26 Student Presentation Competition was organized by the Management Association on the topic "Digital Marketing strategies of any Successful Indian Brand" as on 29th January, 2026 at 12:30 pm in Hall No. 5.

After the introductory speech of the program has then taken its initial step towards its main objective with the introductory speech by Dr. H.S. Patange, Vice-Principal of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded and the head of the Department of Commerce who highlighted on the history and formation of association and how it plays vital role in overall development of students. merce

The association consists of members i.e. In-charge, President, Vice-President and Secretary, Joint secretary, treasurer and a member. All the office bearers of Management association have been selected through the election completion organized by the department. In-charge teacher Miss. Priyanka Shisodiya, Assistant Professor was appointed by the Dr. il.S. Patange, Head of the Department from the faculty members of commerce department.

Students actively participated in the Student Presentation Competition organized by the Management

Association on the topic "Digital Marketing Strategy of Any Successful Indian Brand." A total of 31 students registered for the competition, out of which 14 students actively presented their topics. A good number of students also attended the program as audience members.

The participants demonstrated good preparation and confidence while presenting their ideas on digital marketing strategies adopted by successful Indian brands. Many participants also responded effectively to the questions asked by the judges, which made the session interactive and engaging. The active involvement of students contributed to the overall success and academic value of the event.

Students presented the digital marketing strategies of various successful companies such as Meesho, Malabar Gold & Diamonds, Amazon, Zomato, Lenskart, Amul, Blinkit, Adani Cement, Tata, and several others. Through these presentations, participants highlighted different promotional techniques, social media strategies, customer engagement methods, and innovative marketing campaigns adopted by these brands. As each student focused on a different company, a variety of digital marketing approaches were discussed during the session. This diversity of examples helped the audience understand how companies use digital platforms to promote their products and build strong customer relationships. The discussion significantly enhanced the knowledge and awareness of students about modern digital marketing practices. The Student Presentation Competition was judged by Dr. Mohammed Aamer, Dr. Manisha Deshmukh, and Dr. Balaji Turakar, who carefully evaluated the presentations based on the participants' understanding of the topic, presentation skills, clarity of ideas, and ability to answer questions. After thorough evaluation, the judges declared the winners of the competition. Prachi Oza from FY B.Com. (B Division) secured the 1st Rank, while Ayesha Zuha from TY B.Com. (C Division) achieved the 2nd Rank. The 3rd Rank was awarded to Shreya Panchal from FY B.Com. (B Division). The judges appreciated the efforts of all participants and encouraged students to continue developing their presentation and analytical skills.

Banking Association

Event : Students Presentation Competition

Date:30th January 2026

Venue: Hall No.5

Title :Smart Banking using AI and Technology.

For the Academic year 2025-26 Student Presentation Competition was organized by the

Banking Association on the topic "Smart Banking: Using AI and Technology" as on 30th January, 2026 at 12.30 pm in Hall No. 5. After the introductory speech of the program has then taken its initial step towards its main objective with the introductory speech by Dr. H.S. Patange, Vice-Principal of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Nanded and the head of the Department of Commerce who highlighted on the history and formation of commerce association and how it plays vital role in overall development of students. The association consists of members i.e. In-charge, President, Vice-President and Secretary, Joint secretary, treasurer and a member. All the office bearers of Banking Association have been selected through the election completion organized by the department. In-charge teacher Dr. Mohammed Aamer, Mohammed Akbar, Assistant Professor was appointed by the Dr. H.S. Patange, Head of the Department from the faculty members of commerce department.

Students actively participated in the Student Presentation Competition organized by the Banking Association on the topic "Smart Banking: Using AI and Technology." A total of 10 students registered for the competition, out of which 6 students actively presented their topics. A good number of students also attended the program as audience members. The participants demonstrated good preparation and confidence while presenting their ideas on digital marketing strategies adopted by successful Indian brands. Many participants also responded effectively to the questions asked by the judges, which made the session interactive and engaging. The active involvement of students contributed to the overall success and academic value of the event. Students presented the smart use of AI and Technology in Banking Sector such as ChatBots, Face Verification, Biometric Security etc., and several others. Through these presentations, participants highlighted different techniques, strategies, methods, and innovative banking techniques.

The Student Presentation Competition was judged by Dr. A. U. Jadhav, Mr. V.S. Rathod, and Dr. Balaji Turakar, who carefully evaluated the presentations based on the participants' understanding of the topic, presentation skills, clarity of ideas, and ability to answer questions. After thorough evaluation, the judges declared the winners of the competition. Kirpalsingh Tawana from SY B.Com. secured the 1st Rank, while Ashwini Nilewad from SY B.Com. achieved the 2nd Rank. The 3rd Rank was awarded to Dnyanya Dawkare from TY B.Com. and Mayuri Bokare from FY B.Com. The judges appreciated the efforts of all participants and encouraged students to continue developing their presentation and analytical skills. After the successful completion of the competition and result analysis by the respected judges, the following students won the competition:

Day Four Tax Association.

Date: 31st Jan, 2026

Time: 12:30 PM

Venue: Digital Hall, Department of Commerce

Organized by: Tax Association, Department of Commerce

Faculty In-charge: Ms. B. P. Suvarnikar

Topic: "Role of AI in Modern Tax Administration"

The Tax Association successfully organized a Students' Presentation Competition as part of the YMZEP series on 31st January 2026 at 12:30 PM in Hall No. 5. The theme of the competition was "Role of AI in Modern Tax Administration", aiming to provide students with a platform to present their insights, analysis, and innovative perspectives on the integration of Artificial Intelligence in the taxation system.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from commerce students across all years. A total of 32 students registered their names with Miss B. P. Suvarnikar, In-charge Teacher (Mentor), and Mr. Kirpal Singh Tawana, Vice-President of the Tax Association.

The event commenced with an inspiring address by Dr. H. S. Patange Sir, Head of the Department of Commerce and Management, who encouraged students to explore the transformative role of AI in taxation. He highlighted how modern technologies such as machine learning, data analytics, and automation are revolutionizing tax administration by improving efficiency, transparency, and compliance. He further emphasized the importance of staying updated with technological advancements in the financial and taxation domain.

Miss B. P. Suvarnikar motivated the participants with her encouraging words, stressing the significance of digital literacy and the growing importance of AI in shaping the future of tax systems.

Students Presenting Highlights on AI in Tax Administration

During the competition, students covered various aspects of the theme, including:

• Introduction to Artificial Intelligence in taxation

• Use of AI in tax compliance and fraud detection

• Role of data analytics in improving tax administration

• Automation in return filing and assessment processes

• AI-driven taxpayer services and grievance redressal

• Challenges and ethical concerns in AI-based taxation

• Future scope of AI in India's tax system

Each participant delivered a 5-minute presentation, followed by a brief Q&A session with the audience and faculty judges. The presentations reflected in-depth research, analytical thinking, and innovative approaches, showcasing the students' awareness of emerging technological trends.

Highlights of the Event:

• More than 50 students attended the competition as audience members, fostering an interactive and knowledge-sharing environment.

• Certificates of Participation were awarded to all participants by the hands of Respected Principal Dr. G. N. Shinde Sir, appreciating their efforts and active involvement.

Prize Distribution

Certificates were awarded to the winners by Principal Dr. G. N. Shinde Sir, recognizing their outstanding performance and presentation skills. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Mr. Kirpal Singh Tawana, who expressed sincere gratitude to all participants, organizers, and faculty members for contributing to the success of the competition. He emphasized the importance of understanding emerging technologies like AI to enhance academic knowledge and future career opportunities.

The competition significantly enhanced students' understanding of the application of AI in modern tax administration while developing their skills in research, presentation, and critical thinking. It truly fulfilled the objectives of the Tax Association and the YMZEP initiative .

Teacher Day Celebration

The students of our department has organised the Teachers day and on spot presentation competition Extempore Competition on 5th October 2025 at 11:30 A.M. in Hall No.5. Smart Classroom .The activities is organised by the students of B.Com.S.Y and F.Y. Dr.Kavita.Sonkamble Vice principal,was the Chief Guest of the event and Dr.H.S.Patange was the presence of the event

The program began with Saraswati Pujan and warm welcome of all faculty members, followed by a brief introduction about the significance of Teachers' Day, marking the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. Students expressed their gratitude towards their teachers through speeches, poems, and heartfelt messages.

Various cultural activities were organized by the students, including singing and fun games, which created a joyful and engaging atmosphere. A few students also shared their personal experiences and acknowledged the guidance and support provided by their teachers throughout their academic journey.

As a token of appreciation, students presented small gifts and cards to the faculty members. Mr. Kirpal Singh Tawana has organized the games for teachers Question and Answer session related To department and College. The student's also played a small monologue where they acted the teachers daily dialogues.

Whereas in the continuous activity on spot presentation skill "Extempore Competition was also organised" where the participants has given the topic on time 12 students has taken the participation out off which the judges has mark the 3 students as the winners 1st Rank Akansha pawar

2nd Rank Ashwini Nilewad

3rd Rank Prachi oza

In Chief guest address Dr. Kavita sonkamble expressed her sincere Thanks to the department for inviting and inspired the students with her personal experiences. She praised the students for the extraordinary work and their attachment with department and told that this is the only department in the college which celebrates the Teachers Day
The department is so Active and engaging

She also praised the faculty members for the activity they are carrying out and continuous in the University

On this auspicious occasion The Wall of Fame was also inaugurated By the guests and department members. This wall of Fame is to appreciate the students hardwork and efforts

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Durga Pawde B.Com S.y. appreciating the efforts of both students and teachers in making the celebration successful. Overall, the Teachers' Day celebration was a memorable event that strengthened the bond between students and teachers and highlighted the importance of educators in society.

