wings units, 58 naval wings unit and 58 squadrons are working there in the country for imparting training to these cadets. Following are the Aims of NCC.

1. To develop the qualities of character, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secularism, spirit of adventure and ideal of selfless service among the youth of the country.
2. To prepare a human resource of organized, trained and motivated young man.
3. To create suitable environment for motivating the youth of the country to make career in armed forces.

In Yeshwant Mahavidyala Nanded 52 cadets enrolled for the B and C certificate in July 2018 Lt. Dr. R.P. Gawande working as a NCC Officer from last 12 years. He completed his pre-commission course in September, 2007 and awarded lieutenant rank by the ministry of defence India.

It is praiseworthy that with its motto 'unity & discipline'. In line with its motto, NCC strives to be and is one of the greatest cohesive forces of the nation, bringing together the youth hailing from different parts of the country and moulding them into united, secular and disciplined citizens of the nation. Besides NCC is also taking efforts to inculcate soft skills like communication skills, dedication, time management, commitment, honesty, flexibility and adaptability, safety needs, and understanding of social values into students. This inculcation of unique qualities has got its reflection in various social and development activities being carried out by NCC students.

Over the years, the NCC continues to render yeomen service to the nation, thorough its youth development and social awareness programmes. One of the most important cohesive force of the nation, it grooms the youth into united, disciplined and secular citizens. Aiming to develop generations of youth rendering selfless social services to the nation, it helps to prepare leaders who will serve the nation. The dedication and hard work of the cadets, in bringing laurels to the state, by their contribution in different spheres, is indeed praiseworthy.
